1. Applicant is requested to cancel non-elected claims 1-14, 22 and 30.

2. Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The subject matter of claim 28 has been inserted into claim 23 and hence it is unclear how claim 28 further limits claim 23.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 15-21, 23-29 and 31-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martens in view of Japanese document 8-137375 essentially for reasons of record with these comments. It is noted that applicant has amended the independent claims to recite what was (and still is) in claim 28, concerning the indices of refraction of the different portions of the monomer/polymer that is cured through the mask. However, this aspect was rejected as being inherent in Japanese -375 -see the top of page 3 of the non-final rejection mailed April 15, 2004. Applicant never rebutted this and hence the rejection stands for reasons of record.

4. Applicant's arguments filed August 29, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant continues to argue the references separately when in fact the rejection is based on the combination. While applicant believes that there is no suggestion of combining the teachings of the references to render the instant claims obvious, such is not agreed with. Certainly, one of ordinary skill in this art would have been able to modify a batch process using a mask as shown in Japanese –375 into a continuous one as taught in the primary reference.

5.THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
